MY NAME IS OLD GLORY

BY HOWARD SCHNAUBER

*I am the flag of the United States of America
My name is Old Glory.*

I fly atop the world's tallest buildings.

I stand watch in America's halls of justice.

I fly majestically over great institutes of learning.

I stand guard with the greatest military power in the world.

Look up! And see me!

I stand for peace, honor, truth, and justice.

I stand for freedom.

I am confident . . . I am arrogant.

I am proud.

When I am flown with my fellow banners,

my head is a little higher,

my colors a little truer.

I bow to no one.

I am recognized all over the world.

I am worshipped. I am saluted.

I am respected.

I am revered. I am loved.

And I am feared.

I have fought every battle of every war for more than 200 years...

Gettysburg, Shiloh, Appomattox, San Juan Hill, the trenches of France,

the Argonne Forest, Anzio, Rome, the beaches of Normandy, the deserts of Africa, the cane fields of the Philippines, the rice paddies and jungles of Guam, Okinawa, Japan, Korea, Vietnam, and a score of places long forgotten by all but those who were with me.

I was there!

I led my soldiers.

I followed them.

I watched over them...

They loved me.

I was on a small hill in Iwo Jima.

I was dirty, battle-worn and tired,

but my soldiers cheered me,

and I was proud.

I have been soiled, burned, torn and trampled on the streets of countries

I have helped set free.

It does not hurt . . . for I am invincible.

I have been soiled, burned, torn and trampled on the streets of my country, and when it is by those with whom I have served in battle . . . it hurts.

But I shall overcome . . . for I am strong.

I have slipped the bonds of Earth

and stand watch over the uncharted new frontiers of space

from my vantage point on the moon.

I have been a silent witness to all of America's finest hours.

But my finest hour comes when I am torn into strips to be used for bandages

for my wounded comrades on the field of battle.

When I fly at half-mast to honor my soldiers...

and when I lie in the trembling arms

of a grieving mother at the graveside of her fallen son.

I am proud.

My name is Old Glory.

Dear God . . . Long may I wave!

Welcome to Run For The Wall XXXV

I am excited to welcome you to the Run For The Wall Sandbox Route! My name is Bill “COB” Brehler, your Sandbox Route Coordinator for 2025. This is the 35th annual “RUN FOR THE WALL” and the 4th year for the Sandbox Route. As listed in this Itinerary, we depart Springfield VA on Sunday, May 25 and arrive at the Middle East Conflicts Wall Memorial on Tuesday May 27. Run For the Wall (RFTW) is the largest organized motorcycle ride in the World and consists of four (4) Routes traveling across the United States to visit the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall and Arlington Cemetery in Washington, DC, and the Middle East Conflicts Wall Memorial in Marseilles, IL. The three cross country routes complete their mission on Saturday, May 24 by laying a Plaque at the Vietnam Veterans Wall Memorial. On Sunday, May 25, the Sandbox Route continues the mission. Don’t get me wrong, I enjoy a good old backyard hotdog cookout with friends as much as anyone, but to me, nothing is more meaningful or appropriate than honoring those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country by riding our mission on Memorial Day. We strive to maintain a safe, supportive and private atmosphere in which all participants can reflect and heal on their journey to the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington D.C. and the Middle East Conflicts Wall Memorial in Marseilles, Illinois in the hope they can return home to a new beginning. Additionally, we give all veterans, from all wars and conflicts, the opportunity to get their own welcome home and start the healing process.

I want to give a special Thank You to all the Sandbox Volunteers. We have over a hundred experienced volunteers on the Run, such as Road Guards, Platoon Leadership, Stagers, Fuelers, Ambassadors, Outreach Team, Chaplains, Leadership Support, Medical Support, Hydration, and Chase Vehicles. The goal of this team, along with our State Coordinators, is to provide a well-planned and safe journey to complete our Mission. Our State Coordinators live near our stops along the route and work with the locals to organize the activities at each venue. Along the way we will visit various Patriotic Communities, experience the Flight 93 Memorial, participate in a very patriotic small town Memorial Day Ceremony in St. Clairsville, OH, honor a Gold Star Family at Hunter's Moon Harley Davidson, and spend time with Veterans at the Indiana Veterans Home.

RFTW XXXV – SandBox Route Daily Itinerary

Most of our meals on the route are provided by the people we meet at our stops. While it doesn't cost us anything, it is not free, because someone else paid for it. Many of these communities plan all year just for our visit and conduct fund raisers to provide for us. Be sure to give a Big Thank You to all of them who take care of us. To all of our FNGs (Fun New Guys & Gals) Welcome Home! Whether you're a Veteran or a Patriot, this experience will change your life. I look forward to meeting you all in DC.

History of RUN FOR THE WALL

By James "Gunny" Gregory

In 1986, I rode my Wide Glide in the Los Angeles “Welcome Home” parade for Vietnam Veterans. I was the only biker, an active-duty Marine Corps Drill Instructor, and a Combat Vet. I met my Vietnam Fire Team Leader, Carl Rice, and visited the “moving wall” for the first time. Carl told me about live POWs left behind in Nam. I couldn’t believe what he said, but he convinced me. He invited me to a breakfast Sunday morning to hear families talk about POW/MIAs. One of those speakers was Marion Shelton, the wife of Col. Charles Shelton...the last official Prisoner of War of the Vietnam War. That morning Marion enlisted several others and me into her army of POW/MIA supporters. She and Carl asked, “Can you help? What can the bikers do?”

Carl then walked from Los Angeles to Port Angeles, WA, (his home) along interstate highways carrying the POW/MIA flag. At that time, I was the Chairman of the Board of ABATE of California, President of San Diego ABATE, life member of HOG, AMA, VFW, American Legion, VVA and knew veterans and bikers all over the world. It was a time for action, but I had to retire from the Marine Corps first. About the same time, ABATE received a letter from a Marine Vietnam veteran planning a rally on Memorial Day weekend of 1988, using veteran bikers as their voice to the government. They called the rally ROLLING THUNDER, named after the B-52 strikes that rolled through Vietnam. Another Vietnam Vet, Bill Evans, came to my home and asked for help planning and conducting a motorcycle run to Washington, DC. I told him I had begun the planning already, so we agreed to “do it” together. Bill named this pilgrimage RUN FOR THE WALL! Another Nam Vet, Sam, and his wife, Margo, also joined our core group. We made up a black and yellow “Jane Fonda, American Traitor Bitch” patch, sold them through Easyriders magazine and started raising funds.

I flew to DC to meet with Ray Manzo and Col. Earl Hopper, a POW family member, and Top Holland, our local point of contact. We had a successful meeting and firmed up plans for Rolling Thunder II. At breakfast, we learned that Philippine Communist guerrillas murdered Col. Nick Rowe, a former POW and Special Forces Officer. Top served with Col. Rowe and knew him well. In 1988, I was the S-4 and Safety Officer for 2nd Bn, RTR, MCRD, in San Diego. That meant I had to attend safety school at Indiana University, Bloomington, IN. I took my leave and travel time to recon the routes for Run For The Wall. I rode my bike eastbound on the southern route and returned via the middle route. Then a miracle happened.

Strangers and volunteers started calling and donating time, energy, food, and gas for these routes. Several vet groups, churches, and Motorcycle Rights Organizations were (and still are) the backbone of Run For The Wall.

In May 1989, Marion Shelton saw the first Run leave from San Diego with a local police escort. Bill and I were in the lead. However, before we reached Ontario, Bill lost some of his gear, blew a tire, and then blew his motor. He spent the rest of The Run in the back of a pick-up. Pete then came up and helped with the pack and mechanical needs. This was the first time anyone had ever tried to lead a pack of motorcycles across country. Everyone said we were crazy. About 115 bikes left San Diego the first year. Most turned back in Las Vegas, but about 15 went all the way.

In Kansas, veterans and bikers paid our way through the toll booths on the turnpike, causing us to take our own “special” route around pay stations. In Charleston, WV, I tried to explain to an official of the WV DOT how this worked, but he would not listen. Therefore, I made the decision along with Gary Wetzel, MOH, to take Hwy 60 through the mountains. This fateful decision introduced us to Rainelle, WV, one of the most patriotic communities in America and now one of the major highlights of Run For The Wall Central Route.

On Friday, May 26, Run For the Wall accomplished its mission, arriving in Washington, DC, and walking to The Wall. The next day, Saturday, we laid a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. On Sunday, we helped lead Rolling Thunder with Gary Wetzel, Bill on Pete’s bike, and myself leading the pack. This was one of the proudest moments of my life.

Thank you to everyone who has made Run For The Wall the Success it has become.

Run For The Wall Mission Statement:

- To promote healing among ALL veterans and their families and friends;
- To call for an accounting of all Prisoners of War and those Missing in Action (POW/MIA);
- To honor the memory of those Killed in Action (KIA) from all wars; and
- To support our military personnel all over the world.

“I’ve lived the literal meaning of the ‘land of the free’ and ‘home of the brave.’ It’s not corny for me. I feel it in my heart. I feel it in my chest. Even at a ball game, when someone talks during the anthem or doesn’t take off his hat, it pisses me off. I’m not one to be quiet about it either.”

“It was my duty to shoot the enemy, and I don’t regret it. My regrets are for the people I couldn’t save: Marines, soldiers, buddies. I’m not naïve and I don’t romanticize war. The worst moments of my life have come as a SEAL. But I can stand before God with a clear conscience about doing my job.”

Middle East Conflicts Wall

Marseilles, Illinois

The first memorial constructed was located in St Anne, IL, the hometown of Captain Ryan A. Beaupre, one of Illinois' first casualties in the war against terror. In early 2004, a granite memorial wall was then built featuring the names of all fallen soldiers resulting from the Middle East conflicts since 1967. On June 19, 2004, the wall was dedicated commemorating the servicemen and women who made the ultimate sacrifice. The Middle East Conflicts Wall Memorial, located at 200 Riverfront Drive in Marseilles, Illinois, was built with donated material and labor. It is the first of its kind in the history of the United States. It honors our fallen soldiers by name while we are still in the war that caused the lost lives of our brave soldiers.

The founders Tony Cutrano and Jerry Kuczera spearheaded this project to ensure that those sacrificing their lives for our freedom were given the proper recognition for the selfless service to our great country.
